

Brief Report

Cultural programmes help preserve traditions and heritage.

They promote unity and respect among different communities.

They improve communication and social skills.

They encourage creativity, talent, and self-confidence.

They provide entertainment and relaxation.

They help students learn about different cultures and values.

They strengthen teamwork and cooperation.

They create awareness about social and cultural issues.

They develop leadership and organizational skills.